I never had a particular distaste for men.

...Actually, I take that back.
Maybe a bit.

As I grew up,
naturally, I got used to guys.

When I first enrolled into this school,

I still felt guilty for Min-kyung.

who passed on like that,

so I put on a mask to adapt to my new environment.

*It's Apparently, this is some kind of thing to Korea.

A little bit of thing to eat? I'm being like a dog to talk.

That's why I'm responsible for what happened to Hana and Sung-tae.

If I could turn back time,

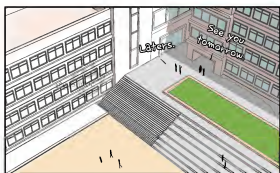

I would

at least

send Sung-tae back.

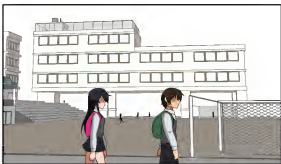

Honestly, I'm a bit skeptical about what Ji-won said.

If skin contact really helped heroes overcome their rebound, what do national heroes do...?

Anyway, Sung-tae recovered most of his memories without it.

The problem is, there are still bits that haven't come back, even though it's been so long.

If it were possible to get it back so easily...

Kyaa?!

Sung-tae!
Are you okay??

Finally.
